

The Courage to Care

Does it originate from bravery or from love?

“Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.” (John 15:13, NIV)

IDEAS FOR REFLECTION

Are you a participator in life or just a bystander? Reflect on the stories in this devotion and decide to become a participator. You can start with something small, like calling someone who may be lonely or bringing the newspaper for your elderly neighbors.

JOURNAL YOUR THOUGHTS

What can you do to better the lives of others today? Think of two things you can do to improve life for someone else. REMEMBER: Simple actions can produce outstanding change.

MY PRAYER

I thank you, Lord, for never leaving me or forsaking me. I am grateful for the confidence I can find in knowing that you gave your life for me. I desire to not only know your love but to be a channel of your love. Cause me to care with courage!
